Dragons

By John Foster & Korky Paul

An engaging mixture of poetry, music and fun, Dragons takes children into a labyrinth of tunnels where many adventures await them.

Narrated by Harry Enfield and Sandi Toksvig, it transports youngsters to the dragons' lair where they can find every kind of dragon they can think of – and some they'd sooner not think of!

There are pet dragons, purple dragons, purple dragons and fiery dragons. They chase teachers, visit the vet and even play the banjo and when children reach the lair, they can hear songs about their favourite dragon and sing along to the words on screen.

Users can decide how and where they will explore the dragons' world. Clicking on the library door will give them a feast of fun poems which are read aloud and there are click-and-play musical numbers to enjoy.

The disc also doubles as an audio CD so children can listen to their favourite songs and poems again and again.
